During the day information reached here that the male party was a horse-thief from Greenfield, Ohio. Thereupon Marshal Mitchell and Mr. Turner, of this city, at once started in pursuit. At 1 o'clock this morning they overtook the thief near Huricane station. An encounter took place, Mitchell and Mr. Turner, of this city, at day; consequently this social club will have ricane station. An encounter took place, the details of which have not reached us, but we have intelligence that the Marshal and Turner were found lying helpless on the highway this morning, both shot. Mitchell died about 9 o'clock A. M., and Turner's injuries, it is believed, will prove fatal also.

The thief then stole a fresh horse in the all telegraph lines, and will probably push vicinity, on the Virginia and Tennessee

He is about twenty-eight years of age; five feet nine inches high; dark hair; beard tipped with red, and weighs about 150

ANOTHER ACCOUNT. [Special telegram to the Dispatch.] BARBOURSVILLE, W. VA., June 27 .- A man hours later in the evening Messrs, Mitchell and Turner, of Huntington, passed through our streets in hot pursuit of the party, stating that the buggy and horse was stolen property. THE WAR CLOUD-LORD DERBY AND THE EASTERN QUESTION. London, June 27 .- In the House of Lords last night the Earl of Derby, replying to a motion of Lord Straheden for the production of papers relative to the Eastern question, stated that abandonment of the Berlin memorandum had removed the cause of disunion between England and other Powers. He justifies the late revolution in Constantinople, and deprecated hasty and unfavorable criticism of the foreign Powers.

The situation, he said, was very complicated; but, for his part, he saw no reason to doubt that all the great Powers, without exception, would be glad to terminate a quarrel having so many elements of danger. Lord Derby continued: "England's line of action is clear. We would gladly reconcile the Porte and the insurgents, but we have no right or wish to take the part of either in a purely internal quarrel. That is the rule on which we have acted in times

"We are in communication with the The silver bill was discussed to adjourn-Porte and other Powers with a view of offering such counsels as seem useful. We have been charged in some quarters with favoring the Turks. The charge is utterly the charges against Clerk Adams reported, unfounded. No one supposed the maintenance of the Ottoman Empire possible if the Christians become permanently disaffected. The problem is to reconcile their reasonable wishes with the maintenance of a system which cannot be overthrown without a
